THE RESUMPTION OF WORK.

The announcement of the settlement of the present difficulties between employed and employer in the granite industry of this city and vicinity is received with satisfaction by practically every person whether he be connected directly with the industry or whether he be dependent to a degree upon the progress of that industry—and all are interested to some degree. Letting alone the question of right and wrong in the discussion and without attempting to go into the merits of the case at all, it is apparent that the result—a resumption of work—is what all desire, although there must necessarily be a divergence of opinion regarding the causes leading up to that result. All who desire to see the industry prosper and, themselves, know that a break in the continuity of the business results disastrously to all classes, whether the break is occasioned by the manufacturers or by the workmen. In this particular instance there was no great apprehension that the difficulty would be of long duration, but a cessation of work, no matter how long or how short it is, makes unsettled conditions which are not beneficial to anyone. The present suspension was only of a day and a half in duration, but it was long enough. There is much reason for congratulation that the matter is settled.

DISTRICT DELEGATES TO NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The district convention at Montpelier on the 10th will select two delegates to the National Republican convention. So far as The Times is informed, there are but two candidates for the position, H. N. Turner of St. Johnsbury and Senator Downer of Sharon. Both will do honor to the state and party if selected, and The Times hopes they may be. The former gentleman is well-known through his connection with the Fairbanks' Seal company at St. Johnsbury, in connection with which he has shown marked ability. Senator Downer is a new comer in the field of state activities but he has abundant ability to come up to the standard required. He was one of the able members of the last state senate and did valuable service on the more important matters of legislation.

If you have settled in your own mind that the Japs have crossed the Yalu, stick to it for you know as much about it as the next person. The "fake-factories" which are grinding out alleged news regarding this far eastern war would cause the most untrustworthy journals in this country to blush over their lost laurels.

Stanton is in the race for the governorship. Clement is said to be on a still hunt, while Bell has been on the warpath for some time. Witness the first warning up of a contest which promises to be every bit as exciting as that of two years ago.

It is now ascertained that many of the Congressmen named in Bristow's post office report did "no moral wrong," but were simply "indiscreet." How like unto the rest of us are some of our Congressmen!

The Vermont Republican League which is to be reconstituted has more than the usual amount of work cut out for it this year. It needs to be in good working order.

The whistles sounded on shrill and clear this morning and the discords fairly blended into harmony. And harmony reigns beneath them.

Hearst is preparing to make an onslaught on Vermont. There will be a landslide and Hearst himself will tumble down in front of it.

It does appear as if the weather clerk is mixed in his dates. Instead of giving us April weather he gives us the one month old variety.

The Remedy.
She was filled with resentment and pain. Refused to unbend for a whim. But a box of nice candy came in very handy. And brought back the smile to her cheek.
—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Fiction.
"I understand he's a writer of fiction."
"I should say so. You ought to see the letters he sends his wife when she's out of town."—Chicago Post.

How He Knew.
"How do you know she's forty-five?"
"Why, the other day she told me she had always taken such good care of herself that nobody would think she was forty."—Indianapolis Sun.

F. H. ROGERS & CO.

Umbrellas appear on the sculptures of Nineveh, but they were first used in England about 1750.

Umbrellas are all right as far as they go—they are social things, will protect her hat. We sell good ones at $1.00, but for the real thing the new Spring Rain Coat is what every man ought to have. Our prices run from $10.00 to $35.00 each.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

Rev. Carl Haselton, of Mechanicville, has accepted a call to the Baptist church, Vergennes.

The comptroller of the currency has extended the corporate existence of the Lyndonville National Bank.

A post office at West Rochester, to be known as Robinson, has been established and was opened about April 1.

Henry A. Doten of Burlington has been granted a patent on a fountain brush. Jason J. Nye of Brookfield has been granted a patent on a telephone call attachment.

The drug store of Dr. D. A. Blasee of Bristol was raided again last Saturday night by Deputy Sheriffs Palmer and Rowley and Constable Smith. Quite a quantity of liquors of various kinds was found, which was deposited in the cells under the town hall. In default of bail Saturday night Dr. Blasee was locked up.

At one time king of all bank robbers and the cleverest crook of his time going under the name of George Bliss, alias George Miles, etc., now known to the world by the name his father gave him, George M. White, is quietly passing the sunset of his life with his sister, Mrs. Sleeper, wife of former Postmaster Sleeper of Westminster, a quiet country village of about 1000 inhabitants, five miles from Bellows Falls. Some time next month he is to bring forth a book which he styles "The autobiography of George Bliss." One of his aliases when a knight of the jimmies. It is now in press.

JINGLES AND JESTS.

Queer, Isn't It?

How odd that a woman asks her husband's judgment on her spring bonnet, but he shrinks from asking her judgment on his spring purse.

The Matrimonial Match.

Ah, nowadays the maidens scheme. To wed the man with lots of rocks! The matrimonial match, 'twould seem, strikes only on the money box.
—Catholic Standard and Times.

Woman Versus Man.

Woman, we are told, cannot be logical. But she can be zoological—she makes monkeys of men.

The Woman Behind.

If man has won fame in this world, A woman helped him win it. If you will look up all the facts, You'll find a woman in it.
—Boston Post.

The Law and the Man.

The law may not serve to make a man good, but it can make him furnish a good example.

An Assumption.

Oh, man's an egotist, they say; He sings the same old song. Whenever things don't go his way He vows they're going wrong.

Needs Watching.

Director—I think we'd better keep an eye on our cashier.
Bank President—What's the matter? Is he living beyond his means?
Director—No; but I was discussing geography with him yesterday and found him suspiciously well posted on Canada. —New York News.

Mrs. Bennett's Petition.

New Haven, Conn., April 13.—Counsel for Mrs. Grace Imogene Bennett appeared before Judge Cleveland in the probate court with a petition that William Jennings Bryan be removed as the executor of the estate of the late Philo S. Bennett, the chief allegation being that he is dissipating the funds of the estate in his legal actions in attempting to secure the probating of the "sealed letter" as a part of the will. The "sealed letter" gives Mr. Bryan $50,000. A similar petition was presented to the court in the earlier stages of the litigation, but it was not pressed because of the more weighty questions then under consideration. Mrs. Bennett now takes this step, and the court will set a date for a hearing.

British Duty on Coal Stands.

London, April 13.—The combined efforts of the coal owners, exporters, shipowners and miners have failed to induce Austin Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, to repeal the coal duty. An important deputation representing all the above interests laid the case before the chancellor and pleaded that the duty was disastrous to every industry connected with the coal trade and enabled their German and other rivals to displace British coal.

In the Garden.

The time is here when we must get The spade and rake and hoe. To nature we must pay this debt: To dig, to plow, to sow. No farmers we, save in desire; Our work has little worth. But every soul exchange tuneful lyre When close to Mother Earth.

The flower that blooms on wrapper Of "fine assorted seeds" The flower we grow with great delight In else, at least, exceeds. But what's the odds? We've known the fruit.

Or well directed toil And bonus of plenty joyous toot When we are near the soil.

We care not for the market price Of green stuff, fruit or flowers. We only know that it is nice. To potter through the hours. We like to see the shoots spring up. Of weeds to know a dearth. Ah, filled with joy is fellow's cup When close to Mother Earth!

Of course, I must admit the fact I shall not turn a hair. Hard work I shun from kids exact. And looms 'em from a chair. The farmer who on porch can sit His nose should never stoop. To sit outdoors and loaf a bit Is to get near the soil.
